

New Commercial Property Solicitor joins My Business Counsel

June 2012

My Business Counsel welcomes Sonal Ghadia

My Business Counsel welcomes Sonal Ghadia, who joins My Business Counsel as a Commercial Property solicitor. Sonal is a commercial property solicitor with over 6 years qualified experience working in private practice law firms for a variety of clients.

Sonal has extensive commercial property experience and can advise on:

- Freehold business premises sale/purchase/remortgage
- Drafting/negotiating/advising on transfers (assignments) of existing leases
- Drafting/negotiating short term lease/licence arrangements
- Commercial property work related to the sale of a business
- Deal negotiation and projects
- Development and planning issues
- Extensions/renewals of existing leases
- Negotiating/advising on termination of leases (lease surrender)
- Possession proceedings
- Advice and negotiation on rent reviews
- Advising on dilapidation issues and litigation

Sandip Sohal, Director of My Business Counsel comments, "we are looking to grow and strengthen our core team in the Midlands to further focus in providing complete Business Services, and Sonal will no doubt complement this service by advising on commercial property matters."

To contact Sonal to discuss your current requirements, or request a review of your current commercial property requirements, please email Sonal on sonal@mybusinesscounsel.com or call 0845 130 6002.

About My Business Counsel

My Business Counsel is a provider of in-house transaction based legal and business services, offering clients an astute, practical and cost efficient way of employing the best professionals for their businesses on a regular basis, or on a transaction basis. If you would like more information about My Business Counsel or the services we provide, please telephone us on 0845 130 6002 or alternatively, you may email us at info@mybusinesscounsel.com.